Welcome to East Grinstead Hockey Club Est. 1897

Saturday 5th March 2022

Welcome to Saint Hill and to the second half of the season.

On behalf of the club, we welcome Clifton Robinsons Ladies first team Saint Hill for the latest round of games in the VWHL Top6.

Following an away win a well-constructed home win against Hampstead & Westminster and a disappointing away defeat to Surbiton, our focus is now on a good performance against Clifton Robinsons at 2pm. While East Grinstead are back to nearly full strength, we are still missing long term injured Tessa Howard. In addition our two Malaysian Internationals have returned home and the inspirational Chloe Palmer has emigrated with her family to Australia where we wish her success and happiness. Although our visitors today are having a difficult second half of the season they put in a creditable performance against 4th placed Wimbledon last weekend. I expect East Grinstead need to get back to winning ways and record a home victory today

Welcome and thank you to umpires Kare Fynn and Neil Smith as well Match Official Jo Pennycook.

As usual we are grateful for the support of the Junior section in providing the ball patrol ably assembled by Katie Wood.

Vitality Women's Hockey League Premier Division Roundup 26th February 2022

Darcy Bourne's dazzling hat-trick fired Surbiton to an emphatic 6-0 victory over East Grinstead to extend their unbeaten record at the summit in the 'Top 6' of the Vitality Women's Premier Division.

A super Saturday of action saw the division's top two sides meet at Sugden Road and Bourne's brilliant treble, bolstered by Sophie Hamilton's double and Taz Cookman's strike, saw Surbiton deliver a dominant statement of intent on home soil. It took the resurgent hosts almost half an hour to break the deadlock before Hamilton's goal from a penalty corner got the ball rolling in south west London. And it didn't take long for the table-toppers to turn the second-half screw, with Bourne and Hamilton netting twice in quick succession to intensify the hosts' grip on the contest. Bourne soon completed her hat-trick with a penalty corner and penalty stroke before Cookman ensured East Grinstead were hit for six in a seismic 'Top 6' clash.

That briefly extended Surbiton's lead at the summit to four points while later in the day, Emily Douglas' double helped propel Hampstead & Westminster to a pulsating 4-2 victory at Beeston. Alice Huddlestone and Paige Gillott netted for the hosts but Douglas' pair of strikes, coupled with Lauren Turner and Sarah Robertson's goals, ensured Hampstead & Westminster capitalised on East Grinstead's defeat to leapfrog them into second in the table and three points behind Surbiton.

Elsewhere on an entertaining Saturday of 'Top 6' action, Fiona Burnet's brace helped Wimbledon battle to a hard-fought 2-1 triumph at Clifton Robinsons. Phoebe Richards scored for the hosts but Wimbledon, who went down 1-0 to Surbiton last time out, held on to bounce back from that setback.

In the lower tier of the Vitality Women's Premier Division, Charlotte Watson's strike proved the difference as Loughborough Students beat Swansea 1-0.

And in the other game of the day, it was Buckingham who sprung a surprise at Holcombe as Jo Pinner's brace meant the hosts were unable to put the pressure on high-flying University of Birmingham in their absence of a Saturday fixture.
